

DEPARTMENT OF MEDICINE

Dr. B. D. Parmar

Professor & Head Of Department

Achievements:

- He was given the Best Educationist Award by International Institute of Education & Management, New Delhi on 23rd Jan 2011.
- Golden Educationist of India Award was given by National & International Compendium on 28th January 2013.
- Best Educationist Award for Outstanding achievements in Chosen Field of Activity was given by International Institute of Education & Management, New Delhi.
- Appreciation for Bio-medical Waste Plant & Environmental Sanitation was awarded by Indian Medical Association, Bhavnagar on 22nd November, 2011.
- 1st International Conference on Clinical Biochemistry & Genetics was organized by him as a Dean of Medical Collage, Bhavnagar.
- The Rotary club has awarded him for his excellent work during plague epidemic in Sept. 1994.
- On 21st September, 1994 he diagnosed the 1st case of pneumonic plague epidemic in Surat.
- INDIA TODAY & TIME MAGAZINE of America had highlighted his achievements for saving thousands of lives due to plague.
- During his tenure as Dean at Bhavnagar Medical College in 2013, it was ranked 30th in the Medical Colleges of India.

- During his tenure as a Dean, Bhavnagar Medical College, National Accreditation of Laboratory and Blood Bank were done in 2011.

- He also received training programme on Tele-Medicine under UNDP programme at Perth, Australia for 10 days in 2002.

- Member of Union Public SERVICE commission.

Dr. Rameshchandra Khemchandbhai Chavda - Professor in Medicine

Achievements:

- He has chaired many academic sessions in various conferences & delivered many lectures and given minimum critical care training to Medical Officers of South Gujarat during Leptospirosis epidemic in South Gujarat.
- He has worked as a physician member in rapid response team for many outbreaks and epidemics.
- He has significantly contributed in control and prevention of plague epidemic in 1994 in Surat. The first case of suspected plague was admitted under his care on 21st September 1994.
- He has worked as a co-ordinator and team leader for control and prevention of Leptospirosis in South Gujarat since 1994 and published research article in and National journal on clinical aspect of Leptospirosis.
- He has been appointed as MCI inspector by Medical Council of India, Delhi for UG & PG inspections in different Medical Colleges of the Country on several occasions.
- He has been awarded “Jesingbapa Rotating Lectureship” - by Association of Physicians of Gujarat for delivering lectures in peripheral parts of South Gujarat.
- He has worked several times as subject expert in selection panel for medical officers and physicians in Government & Private sectors.
- He has worked as in charge of PG centre for Medicine, Veer Narmad South Gujarat University, Surat
- He has worked as Member of Board of Studies for Medicine & allied subjects at Veer Narmad South Gujarat University, Surat
- Has worked as member of Institutional Ethics Committee, Purchase Committee, Pharmecovigilance Committee etc. at Govt. Medical College, Surat.
- He has attended many State Level, National And International Level Conferences.
- He has selected for nomination of prestigious title “ Man of the Year 2000 “ by the American Biological Institutes International board of Research, Releigh, North Carolina, USA on account of overall accomplishments and contributions to society.